Dear reader,

It is time for a new version of SERCOMmunication. It seems that we are slowly going back to normal. This means that trade fairs will also take place again! The first one has already been scheduled, namely HortiContact. We hope to see you there in May.

Renewed CO meter launched

The Sercom CO meter is a product that has been well-known within the (inter)national horticultural world for many years. In 2021, this system was re-examined. Some important changes have been made.
